DJ Doris's life to be celebrated in Phuket

PHUKET: With tributes continuing to flood in for Scotsman Paul 'DJ Doris' Norris, his colleague and co-founder of the 91.5 FM radio station, Byron Jones, has confirmed that Mr Norris' body will be repatriated to Scotland for a funeral on a date to be set.

Mr Norris died in a motorcycle accident in the early hours of Sunday morning (January 12).

After his funeral, a 'Celebration of Paul's Life' will be arranged on the island for all his many friends to pay their respects. The date and venue of this celebration have yet to be confirmed.

Mr Jones told The Phuket News that 91.5 FM was also planning a special 'DJ Doris Day' to coincide with his funeral. The arrangements for this, too, have yet to be confirmed.

"Anyone wishing to record a message for this day is welcome to contact us via email to arrange a convenient recording time.

"We thank you all, from Paul's family and from ourselves, for all your kind messages and respect," Mr Jones added.
